Lyrics for "Augustus Gloop," "Mike Teavee" poems in the

AUGUSTUS GLOOP

Augustus Gloop, Augustus Gloop, the great big greedy nincompoop.
Augustus Gloop, so big and vile. So greedy, foul and infantile.

Come on we cried, the time is ripe, to send him shooting up the pipe.
But don't dear children be alarmed.

Augustus Gloop will not be harmed; Augustus Gloop will not be harmed.

Although of course we must admit, he will be altered quite a bit.
Slowly wheels go round and round, and cogs begin to grind and pound.

We'll boil him for a minute more, until we're absolutely sure.
Then out he comes, by God, by grace, a miracle has taken place, a miracle has taken place.

This greedy brute, this louse's ear is loved by people everywhere.
For who could hate or bear a grudge against a luscious bit of FUDGE!!!

MIKE TEAVEE

The most important thing, that we've ever learned,
The most important thing we've learned as far as children are concerned
Is never, never let them near, a television set, or better still just don't install the idiotic thing at all.
(Never, never let them...never, never let them)

It rots the senses in the head. It kills imagination dead.
It clogs and clutters up the mind. It makes a child so dull and blind. (So dull and blind...so dull and blind)

He can no longer understand a fairytale, in fairyland. (A fairyland...a fairyland)
His brain becomes as soft as cheese, his thinking powers rust and freeze.
He cannot think, he only SEES! (He only sees...he only sees)

Regarding little Mike Teavee, we very much regret that we (Regret that we) Shall simply have to wait and see...we very much regret that we Shall simply have to wait and see if we can get him back to size,
But if we can't...it serves him right!

ke Teavee," "Veruca Salt," and "Violet Beauregarde" are adapted from book, Charlie and the Chocolate Factory by Roald Dahl.

VERUCA SALT

Veruca Salt, the little brute, has just gone down the garbage chute.
And she will meet as she descends, a rather different set of friends.

...a rather different set of friends...a rather different set of friends.

A fish head for example cut, this morning from a halibut.

An oyster from an oyster stew, a steak that no one else would chew.
And lots of other things as well, each with its rather horrid smell. (Horrid smell)

These are Veruca's new found friends that she will meet as she descends.

These are Veruca's new found friends...

Who went and spoiled her, who indeed? Who pandered to her every need?

Who turned her into such a brat? Who are the culprits, who did that?

The guilty ones, now this is sad, are dear old mum, and loving dad.

VIOLET BEAUREGARDE

Listen close, and listen hard, the tale of Violet Beauregarde.

This dreadful girl she sees no wrong...

Chewing, chewing, chewing, chewing, chewing, chewing all day long.

Chewing, chewing all day long. Chewing, chewing all day long.

Chewing, chewing all day long.

She goes on chewing till at last, her chewing muscles grow so fast.

And from her face her giant chin, sticks out just like a violin...

--- Chorus ---

For years and years she chews away, her jaws get stronger every day.
And with one great tremendous chew... they bite the poor girl's tongue in two.

And that is why we try so hard, to save Miss Violet Beauregarde.

--- Chorus ---

WONKA'S WELCOME SONG

Willy Wonka, Willy Wonka...

The amazing Chocolatier.

Willy Wonka, Willy Wonka...

Everybody give a cheer!

He's modest, clever, and so smart,

He barely can restrain it.

With so much generosity,

There is no way to contain it...

To contain it...to contain...to contain...to contain.

Willy Wonka, Willy Wonka...

He's the one that you're about to meet.

Willy Wonka, Willy Wonka...

He's a genius who just can't be beat.

The magician and the chocolate wiz...

The best darn guy who ever lived.

Willy Wonka here he is!
